A Fast Saint.

New York, 17.—The case with which "Trinkett," on Saturday, in 1874, in fine weather and on a very good track, but still a track not among the fastest in the country, leads some people to faint hope that he may yet lower his own record, and even that of "Maud S," before snow falls. Certainly, the great horse has not done justice thus far this year to his reputation, but as he is said to have been only recently brought into thorough racing condition, he may yet do something wonderful during his present tour with "Trinkett," whose next race occurs on Saturday.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Criminalities.

New York, 17.—Herald's St. Petersburg: A female nihilist called Libeff, formerly an intimate friend of Jeloff, and known to have been implicated in abortive attempts on the life of the late Czar, was arrested here to-day. She will be tried with seventeen other nihilists about the end of this month.

Richmond, Va., 16.—Congressman elect Geo. D. Wise having denounced Riddleberger as a base liar and slanderer, a hot meeting is expected. Riddleberger is in town. Wise left to avoid arrest.

A dispatch from Lynchburg states that W. L. Wilson, city editor of the Lynchburg News, states that the publication in the Richmond Whig of a denial by him of the authenticity of the so-called "Blair letters" was a lie and a forgery. He further states that Riddleberger did not dare deny the genuineness of the letters at Fincastle, knowing that he (Wilson) was prepared to denounce him as a liar.

A hostile meeting took place, this afternoon, about ten miles from Richmond, between Captain H. H. Riddleberger and Hon. G. D. Wise. Four rounds were fired without either being hurt. Mutual explanations and an amicable adjustment followed.

Previous to the above meeting, Capt. Riddleberger and Richard F. Beine, editor of the State, met for the purpose of fighting a duel, but when all the parties appeared upon the ground selected it was found that no caps had been provided for the pistols, so Riddleberger rode away to Wise.

St. Louis, 16.—The body of an unknown man was found, yesterday, hanging to a tree in the thick woods four miles from Grain Tally Station on the Chicago and Alton Railroad, and some twenty miles from Kansas City. The body had apparently been hanging three days. The theory is that the man was a detective and had been lynched by someone connected with the recent robbery.

San Francisco, 16.—James Hope, the noted burglar, was convicted of attempt at burglary in the first degree.

Washington, 16.—Late to-night Senator Mahone was arrested at the instance of Samuel Strong, an old resident of Washington, who received information which he believed was from a reliable source, that General Jubal A. Early, charged Mahone to fight a duel, and the latter had accepted. Mahone was taken to the residence of Judge Snell, of the police court, where he denied having received a challenge from General Early, saying the latter was too old and feeble to fight, and adding that all their differences had been harmonized. Mahone was released on his personal bond and returned home. He will appear on Monday.

Carbondale, Ill., 15.—J. H. Potts, liveryman and mule buyer, St. Louis, shot and killed one Davis, at Carbondale, a well-known sporting character and driver of trotting horses. The trouble was over a horse trot.

Louisiana, Mo., 15.—Edward McQuire, this city, shot his wife yesterday afternoon, not fatally, and then committed a suicide. It was a deliberately planned affair. McQuire belonged one of the oldest families of this section. He married last Christmas Miss Mattie Adams. Disposition was the cause of the suicide.

Little Rock, Ark., 16.—The residence of John Miller, a respectable planter living in Randolph County, was visited the other night by ten or twelve men heavily armed, who wore muslin masks on their faces. They surrounded the dwelling and called loudly for Miller to come out. Miller was absent in attendance at a Baptist association some miles away. Upon learning this the mob entered the house and taking two boys, aged 15 and 18 into the yard, whipped them in a terrible manner. The youngest boy, attempting to escape, was fired upon, not less than twenty shots taking effect in his body. He fell to the ground, and the desperadoes, after threatening the lives of Miller's wife and daughter, rode away remarking that at the next visit they would clean out the ranch and kill every one about it. After they let Mrs. Miller followed them some distance, without their knowledge, and identified some of them. No cause is known for the outrage. It was feared that Miller would be assassinated while returning home, but he is reported to have reached his family without molestation.

Blaine Will Go.

New York, 16.—The Herald has the following: A close friend of Blaine's assured me that his premier could not be induced to serve out his term under any circumstance. He has made up his mind to retire. That it is his intention to be a candidate for the presidency in '84 is unquestionable, and he seems to be clear in the belief that his chances of carrying off the prize would be infinitely better out of the cabinet than in it. The publication recently of the letter which he wrote to Garfield accepting a place in the cabinet was not accidental. It was really the first step in the canvass for the next nomination. This has been followed by other movements since, which are only known to his most trusted followers. Blaine, within a few days, will urge Arthur to take immediate action on his resignation.

A Poor Pope.

Rome, 17.—The Pope, in his address to Italian pilgrims at St. Peter's yesterday, stated that the deplorable state of affairs placed before him the alternative of reducing the continual captivity, made harder daily or of going into exile; he therefore asked Catholics to watch and pray for the liberty and independence of the Pope. He concluded by saying he was no longer secure in his palace; that he was outraged in his person and dignity in a thousand ways. The gravity and earnestness of the Pope made a profound impression. He closed his address with his arms raised to heaven as though imploring help.
